

Biographies

Lars Ericson-Wolke is Professor in Military History at the National Defence College, Stockholm and a Member of the Swedish Academy of War Sciences. He is also a Member of the Board of the International Commission for Military History and President of the Swedish Commission for Military History. Lars Ericson Wolke has published some 20 books and numerous papers and articles mainly about the military history of the Baltic region. Among his latest works are (all in Swedish): Europe in Flames - The Thirty Years War, 1618-1648 (2006); The Ideas of War - Swedish Thoughts About Warfare, 1320-1920 (2007); Lessons learned? Swedish Operational and Tactical Experiences from the Congo Crisis 1960-1964 (2007); and Tactic and Terror - Bombing From the Air During 100 Years (to be published in 2010). He is now working on a study of Swedish operational and tactical experiences from missions in Western Balkans after 1993. See also http://www.ericsonwolke.se/index_eng.html

Dr Björn Gäfvert was employed by the Swedish Military Archives from 1977-2007 and was Senior Archivist from 1982-2007. From 1992, he was head of the department for maps, drawings and photographs. Dr. Gäfvert has published several articles on military history and historical cartography. He gained his doctorate in History from the University of Stockholm in 1979.