

The role of industry

David Evans

Project Director – 2012

British Security Industry Association

Singapore bid – security submission

- Security controls at Olympic Venues
- Provision of spectator services staff
- Access control and ‘mag and bag’ searches
- National policing response will be supported by and work in partnership with the private security industry

CONTEST & OPSS

- CONTEST – National & local partnerships
 - Critical national infrastructure
 - Crowded places
 - Aviation rail & maritime transport
 - Border security
- OPSS
 - “will require close co-operation with industry and the private security sector across a range of issues”

- The industry co-ordinating partner
- RISC comprises:
 - Industry representatives
 - Trade Associations: ADS, BSIA, Intellect
 - Academia
- RISC/OSCT Industry Advisory Groups:
 - CBRNE
 - ICT
 - CNI
 - Stand Off detection
 - 2012

2012 IAG

- Sits within Engage
- OSD/RISC co-chair
- Comprises: OSD, RISC, NOSC, LOCOG, ODA, ACPO TAM, UKT&I, London Business Network, and The Security Institute
- Current work:
 - Programme Days for Industry
 - OSD/Industry workgroups
 - Industry Communication
 - Procurement strategy
 - Facilitating Science & Technology strategy – Ideas and Innovation
 - Cross cutting work with other IAGs

Areas of opportunity

- Olympic Delivery Authority
 - Now
 - Games time
- LOCOG
 - Olympic venues
 - Olympic Park
 - Other venues
 - Cultural Olympiad
- Olympic Security Directorate
 - Blue light services
 - Additionality
 - Procurement from the private sector

Areas of opportunity (cont'd)

- Supplier security
- Hotel and Leisure industry
- Media
- Training camps
- Sponsors
- Existing customers
- Close protection
- Local Authorities
- Event Organisers
- CONTEST

Private sector – to date

- 1000 businesses won contracts worth over £5bn
- 98% UK based
- 68% SMEs
- 46% outside London
- 10% in Host Boroughs

Bridging the Gap

- BSIA initiative to ensure the industry has manpower capacity
- Based on Further Education sector
- 50 Further Education Colleges from across the UK
- Training:
 - 2009/10 – 2,000 students for stewarding qualification
 - 2010/11 – 6,000 students trained for stewarding and door supervisor qualification
 - 2011/12 – 6,000 students trained for stewarding and door supervisor qualification
- Olympic Inspire Mark
- Work Experience

Partners

Participating colleges

Greenwich College
Newham College
Waltham Forest College
Hackney College
Tower Hamlets College
Filton College
Croydon College
Carshalton College
Highbury College
City of Westminster
Kingston College
Lambeth College
Bromley College
Ealing, Hammersmith and West London College
Richmond College
Merton College
Central Sussex College
Totton College Southampton
New College Swindon
South Devon College
North Devon College
Aylesbury College
Farnborough College
NW Kent College
Thanet College
Brighton College

North Hertfordshire College
Weymouth College
Warwickshire College
Hopwood Hall College Manchester
Belfast Metropolitan College
Derby College
South Nottingham College
College of West Anglia
Chesterfield College
Newbury College
East Norfolk College
Tresham College
New Stamford College
Barnfield College
Redcar & Cleveland College
Harlow College
Leicester College
Brooklands College
Colchester Institute
Barking College
Epping Forest College
Stanmore College
College of North West London
Stow College (Scotland)
Seevic College

Lord West

“This project shows the Government working with British business to help communities and young people in the UK.”

Bridging the Gap - Legacy

- New method of entry to careers in the security industry
- Professionalising the entry level
- Local colleges for locally based jobs
- Security industry engagement in lifelong learning & development
- Lowers industry's recruitment and training costs

