

MAJOR CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

RUSI's Corporate Level Membership packages are open to all organisations concerned with defence and security matters, and can be tailored to meet the business interests of both public and private sectors. Our corporate memberships will also offer you unique access into the defence and security community through networking opportunities and discounted conference fees.

The Major Corporate package enables members to establish close relations with the Institute through private briefing forums with senior research staff on key defence and security issues. As a Major Corporate you will also be invited to attend closed 'Whitehall Dialogue' meetings, as well as benefitting from RUSI's standard Corporate privileges.
