

Olympic and Paralympic Safety and Security

13 November 2009

8.15- 9.00 Registration

9.00-9.30 Morning Keynote:

Chair: Sir Paul Lever, Vice-President, RUSI

Speaker: Lord West, Parliamentary Under-secretary of State for Security and Counter-terrorism

9.30-11.00 Session One: A strategic approach to delivering a safe and secure 2012

Chair: Sir Paul Lever, Vice-President, RUSI

Speakers: Charles Farr, Director-General, Office for Security and Counter-terrorism, Home Office
'CONTEST: Setting the context for Olympic security planning'

Robert Raine, Director of Olympic and Paralympic Security, Home Office
'The strategic approach'

Howard Shiplee, Director of Construction, Olympic Delivery Authority (ODA)
'Building in security: the ODA perspective'

Sir Ian Johnston, Director of Security and Resilience, London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games (LOCOG)
'Staging a safe and secure event: the LOCOG perspective'

11.00-11.30 Tea and Coffee

11.30-13.30 Session Two: Identifying and responding to the security challenge

Chair: Margaret Gilmore, Senior Research Fellow, Royal United Services Institute

Speakers: Chief Superintendent Brian Kelly, Deputy Head, Security Architecture & Design Team, Olympic and Paralympic Security Directorate, Home Office
&
Chief Superintendent Jim Busby, Lead, Olympic Site and Venue Security Project, Metropolitan Police Service
'The London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games- assessing the risk'

Bruce Mann, Director, Civil Contingencies Secretariat
'Ensuring resilience'

Phil Graham, Deputy Director, Threats, Contingencies and Operations Support, TRANSEC
&
Paul Neal, Head of Surface Transport, Olympic Delivery Authority
'Securing the transport network'

Tony Smith, Regional Director, London & South East, UK Border Agency
'Securing our borders'

Dr Penny Bevan, Emergency Preparedness, Department of Health

13.30-14.30 Lunch

14.30-1600 Session Three: Planning and managing the safety and security challenge

Chair: Sir Brian Burridge, former Air Chief Marshall, RAF

Speakers: Commander Ian Quinton, Head of Security Architecture & Design, Olympic and Paralympic Security Directorate, Home Office
'Developing a national concept of operations'

Assistant Commissioner Chris Allision, Assistant Commissioner for the Olympic and Paralympic Games, Metropolitan Police Service
'National coordination'

Commander Bob Broadhurst, Operational Planning- 2012 Olympics, Metropolitan Police Service
'Policing the event'

Assistant Commissioner Andy Hickmott, London Fire Brigade
'A Fire Brigade perspective'

16.00-16.30 Tea and Coffee

16.30-18.00 Session Four: A partnership approach

Chair: Rachel Briggs, Senior Research Fellow, Royal United Services Institute

Speakers: Ben Fletcher, Head of Engage, Olympic and Paralympic Security Directorate, Home Office
'Engagement overview'

Mike Gillespie, Deputy Director and Head of Prevent Central Unit, Home Office
'Opportunities for the Prevent agenda in East London'

David Evans, Project Director -2012, BSIA
'The role of industry'

Richard Sumray, Chair, London 2012 Forum
'Engagement and legacy'

18.00 Evening Champagne Reception